

Harvest Holiday News

January 2019

Note from the Chair

First, we want to thank our outgoing Chairs, Jack and Sharie, the Harvest Holiday officers and members who do the work of the organization, and, of course, our faithful cuers and the spouses who support them. We are grateful to all of you who have agreed to serve again in 2019. Also, a special thank you to Christine for publishing a fantastic newsletter every month!

The first regular Sunday Fun Dance of 2019 will be Jan. 13th. Our first business meeting will be at 1:00, and we have several things that we need to discuss. If there is something that you would like to place on the agenda, let us know.

The 2019 annual dues are due, and we are looking forward to having all our current members renew their membership. We really appreciate everyone who helps set up before and clean up after the dances.

We especially want to encourage newer dancers to join Harvest Holiday. Just contact any one of us for membership information. If you love dancing as much as we do, and if you want the festival and the Sunday dances to continue, we need your help and your input.

Finally, please plan to attend the PH 2-4 Winter Fun Rounds on Jan. 27th, and if possible, bring some goodies to share.

We look forward to seeing everyone on the 13th!

Ed and Karen Gloodt

Dancer News

Marilou Webb – Back around November 27, Marilou was involved in a fender-bender. At first it was thought she was just bumped and bruised, but it was later determined she had a fracture at the L2 level of her spine. On Monday, December 31, she had surgery to "cement" the fracture (my layman's terminology). She has been in extreme pain, but the pain meds are helping, and she is moving a little better, but it will take a while to heal. She had another MRI the afternoon of January 7, and will see the spine specialist on Wednesday, January 9. Please keep Marilou in your thoughts and prayers for a speedy, complete, and pain-free recovery. Cards and/or notes may be sent to Marilou at: 1200 Wildflower Lane, Mesquite, TX 75149; e-mail: Marilou.webb@gmail.com.
