July 2008

From the Chair:

Texas summer has arrived full of dry, hot days and dancing in San Antonio. Yes, ICBDA for 2008 was a great success in San Antonio the end of June. We were very fortunate as San Antonio experienced afternoon showers three of the four days and cooled the weather substantially. There were many fabulous dances taught by excellent clinicians. Hope you were able to be a part of such a great convention.

This month is our quarterly meeting to ensure all is in place for our upcoming Festival. Well, yes, it is in November, but it truly is amazing how time flies. For our local dancers, the “before the dance meeting” starts at 1:00 and then we will, as usual, be dancing 2:00 to 5:00 for our regular second Sunday of the month Fun Dance.

Remember our Sunday Fun Dance II which features Phase 3 and 4 dances is scheduled for September 28, the last Sunday of the month. We have flyers posted at Swingtime and will be promoting this dance at square dances throughout the next two months. We had a great turnout in the spring for this dance so hope to see many of our local dancers supporting this dance.

See you there – and Happy Dancing,
Linda and JL

Monday Dancing in Garland – Goodsons

Paul and Pat Goodson are taking a well-deserved long vacation and Christine and Theron are cuing in Garland every Monday night at least through July for Fan & Flares.

ICBDA Website: If you haven't been out to www.icbda.com, you need to spend some time looking over this great site. Glen and Helen Arceneaux, Co-Chairs of Harvest Holiday, have done an absolutely fabulous job of developing this site. Early pages are available for guests, however, to take full advantage of all the wonderful information, click on the link “To become a Member.” The cost is a mere $21 which provides full access to the site.
