

Harvest Holiday News

February 2013

Notes from the Chair

The new year 2013 got off to a good start in January – our regular Sunday Fun Dance on the 13th and the Winter Rounds, Phase 2-4 dance, which benefits CASUL/Swingtime Center. We were able to contribute about $440 (net after expenses) to the parking lot fund for Swingtime. Thanks to Christine and Theron Hixson for organizing the Winter Rounds.

Our first quarterly meeting was held prior to the January Fun Dance. A modest dues increase was approved, the price now being $100.00 per couple ($50.00 per person).

Plans for Harvest Holiday 2013 are in the initial stages, as we are awaiting the accounting from the Sterling Hotel for the 2012 Festival. We plan to meet with the Hotel staff soon so that plans for the 2013 Festival can move forward. Check the Harvest Holiday website for the most current information about the 2013 festival, as well as current information about Harvest Holiday in general - officers, committee chairs, and of course the full schedule of dances for the year.

We're looking forward to a fun-filled 2013!

Note of Thanks

Thanks to all the dancers and cuers who came out on January 20 to make the Harvest Holiday Winter Fun Rounds fundraiser for Swingtime such a success. Because of all the efforts involved, Swingtime (CASUL) will be enriched by a little over $500.00.

Thanks especially to Chris and Maria Farabaugh, Jack and Sharie Kenny, Karen and Ed Gloodt, Jack and Ann von der Heide and JL and Linda Pelton who joined us in cueing, and the Harvest Holiday members who provided such great refreshments, hospitality, and then helped clean up.

To put on an event like this takes great team effort, and it is obvious we have a great team. THANK YOU.
