

Harvest Holiday News

September 2012

Notes from the Chair

This is the month for our Harvest Holiday meeting before our Fun Dance on September 9. The meeting will start at 1:00 with dancing starting at 2:00 p.m. We really need everyone there so we can start finalizing plans for our Harvest Holiday Festival.

It's been a busy month for a lot of us. Look for the article from the Madill Festival which featured Karen & Ed Gloodt and Christine & Theron Hixson later in this newsletter. I know many of our members attended.

This month is also our Phase 2-4 Harvest Autumn Rounds on September 30. The dance is from 2:00-5:00 and will, as usual, feature local cuers cuing for your dancing enjoyment.

Blue Moon Over Madill

Oklahoma Festival – Aug. 26

By Karen Gloodt

A big “Thank You” to all the dancers who joined us for an afternoon of teaches, a time of fellowship, and an early evening of dancing on August 26th in Madill, Oklahoma. We thoroughly enjoyed the festival, and we hope the dancers did too.

Ed and I taught Kenji and Nobuko Shibata's new Phase 4 Mambo, “Dance to the Heartbeat,” and Christine and Theron Hixson taught their lovely new Bolero, “Bilitis.”

Special Note by Karen Gloodt regarding Rainbow Rounds

A special thanks to JL & Linda Pelton and Chris and Maria Farabaugh for filling in for us while we were off to Roundarama.

I know that the Rainbow Rounds enjoyed having some new (and younger) blood!
