

Harvest Holiday News

December 2013

Notes from the Chair

Thanks to all that came to the Sunday Fun Dance on Nov. 10 and to the final Harvest Holiday meeting before the festival, and stayed around to help clean up. It was a fun and productive afternoon. Our next regular Sunday Fun Dance will be on Sunday, December 8. This is a free dance for all. See you there!

As you know, our annual festival is right around the corner. We are looking forward to seeing all the dancers. If you haven't registered but still want to come, the festival is sold out but there is no one on the waiting list as of this writing. We are looking forward to seeing many of you at the free impromptu teaches and free dances during the Thanksgiving week leading up to the festival itself.

See you in Dallas!

Jack and Sharie Kenny
Chairman, Harvest Holiday Festival 2013

Rainbow Rounds News

Karen and Ed Gloodt – Wednesday nights – Swingtime Center – 6:00-6:45 p.m.

Starting Jan. 8th, if there is interest, Karen is planning to do catch-up teaches of dances which newer dancers might not know and which appear regularly on festival programs, including ICBDA.

The dance teaches will precede Rainbow Rounds regular dance. The first rhythm will be bolero and will include The Best of Me (Goss) and You Decorated My Life (Gloodt). The charge will be $2 per person, and anyone is welcome to join us. (The evening program from 7-9 will remain the same.)

Rainbow Rounds also voted to do a full teach of the “oldies” dance, PA 6-5000, on Wed. Jan. 29th from 7-9. Anyone who would like to learn this dance is invited to join us.

Our new Bolero dancers learned Valentine Bolero and El Reloj this past month.

Harvest Holiday Newsletter Editor Wanted

After two years, it's time to turn over the newsletter editor position to someone new. What is great about this job is you just have to have an interest in doing a newsletter. You don't have to attend all or even any of the dances. Information on the Dances Cued and the Record of the Day can be sent to you electronically. The primary requirement is being interested in helping Harvest Holiday.

Currently the newsletter is done in Microsoft Word and over the last few months, the format has been streamlined so that anyone with minimum Word skills can produce the newsletter. If you are interested, contact Steve Davis, the incoming Chairman or if you have questions about the newsletter editor position, call Linda Pelton at 972-897-6006. Harvest Holiday would appreciate the help.
