September 2011

♪ NOTES FROM OUR CHAIR ♪

We have two dances this month: September 11 is our regular Sunday Fun Dance, and September 25 is our Autumn Fun Rounds, which is also a Nortex Reveille (pre-Round-Up) dance. Come out and have fun at both these functions.

We wish Donna Stewart all the best in her move back home to Canada – we will miss her. Our loss is Canada's gain.

Our 51st Harvest Holiday Festival is fast approaching. Come dance and learn with us all week during our pre-festival activities, and then spend the weekend with all of us and our Festival Clinicians, Curt & Tammy Worlock.

For the Festival, we still need some volunteers to help with decorations and take care of the Sunday morning coffee and donuts. Please contact us about this.

Health Updates:

Ruby Watson, our Newsletter Editor, recently had shoulder surgery, and will be out of commission another 4-6 weeks. She is undergoing therapy and doing well, albeit frustrated with only having one good arm to use.

Royce Wheaton is recuperating well after a short spell in the hospital, but is not yet cleared to dance. However, our spotters saw Royce & Betty visiting at a square dance (not dancing), so he is up and about and raring to go.

~~~ OTHER DANCE NEWS ~~~

Rainbow Rounds: (from Karen Gloodt)

The September teach for Rainbow Rounds will be Carnival, PH IV RB by the Rumbles and 2010 ICBDA Hall of Fame dance. We will miss Sept. 14 (going to Red River for the festival with the Moores), and Jack and Ann plan to review Sweet Ida and Rainbow FT. October 5th will be Rainbow Rounds Reveille Dance.

Report on Blue Moon Over Madill: (from Christine Hixson)

We had a great time in Madill on August 28, learning, eating, and dancing – in that order.

The afternoon began with Karen and Ed teaching their new slow two-step St. Elmo's Fire. This is a really neat dance to good music with mostly standard figures, and also included "The Square." Karen & Ed did a great job of teaching so that even those couples who were not familiar with the rhythm were having fun and doing the dance. Christine & Theron taught a new rumba by the Shibatas called I Don't Know, written to the music "No Se Olvidar." Although it is phased at 3+1+1, the combination of figures and syncopation make it more challenging for that level. All of the dancers said both dances were "Keepers."

After the teaches, we all stayed in the hall and had a snack supper – hot dogs with trimmings, Ed's BBQ beans, chips, fruit and homemade desserts.

For the next two hours, we danced off all that good food before returning home. Dances on the program were: Won't You Come Dance FT III, Banana Boat Cha, El Reloj, Uptown, Raining In My Heart, Scheherazade, Moving South, I Love You Because, It's Your World Now, Roll Back the Rug & Dance, Feed the Birds, Un Tango Del Cuore, Pop Goes the Movies, Teach dance – I Don't Know, Teach dance – St. Elmo's Fire, Tonight III, Return to Sorrento, Boogie Time, For a Moment, Don't Be Mean, Wrap Your Troubles in Dreams, The Sun The Sea The Sky, Shamey Shamey Shame, Valentine Bolero, Woodchoppers Ball, Am I Blue IV, Black Horse & Cherry Tree, Coney Island.

All in all, a wonderful way to spend an afternoon and evening with our dance family. We are so looking forward to a repeat performance next year on August 26 in Madill.
