Ed Gloodt Honored at Library

This is the window at the Ardmore, OK library which featured Ed Gloodt for the month of October. The window was titled Presenting Our Friend, Ed Gloodt, and His Favorite Things. It showcases his glass work, jewelry, photography, and dancing, along with book covers related to those topics. Karen reports that the librarian got to know Ed because he goes to the library almost every day to check out movies. She then asked if the library could feature him.

Nortex Roundup

Christine and Theron conduct two rounds workshops at the Nortex Roundup the end of October – an easy/basic level workshop and an intermediate level workshop. Dances taught included: Pennsylvania Polka (Walker Ph. II) and Alleghany Moon (Aoyama, Ph. II+2 WZ) during the easier workshop and for the intermediate workshop Latino Luna (Hoffman, Ph. IV+2 RB) and Come by the Hills (Molitoris, Ph. III+1 WZ).
