Note from the Chair

Thanks to everyone who helped ensure a successful Mini-Fest last month, with a special thanks to JL and Linda Pelton and Jack and Sharie Kenny who provided the afternoon teaches. Our participants were very appreciative of this opportunity to learn and dance at a comfortable level.

Our next regular Fun Dance is Sunday, May 21, not May 14. Happy Mother's Day!

NOTE FROM JL & LINDA PELTON, MINI-FEST CHAIR:

Mini-Fest was such fun and the dancers attending had a great time. We heard several compliments about the day's activities from the dancers. The success of the event is because of all the wonderful help from the membership in doing the "behind the scenes" work of bringing food, setting up and cleaning up Swingtime for Mini-fest.

Everyone pitched in and did a fabulous job. Christine Hixson managed the Luby's outing, Barb Yeargan, Kathy Ellis, Bill Knight, Barrie and John Edstrom, and Sharie and Jack Kenny opened the hall and setup the food, John and Leota Porter were the sweeping crew at the end of the night. Bill Rackley cleared the food table and Ken and June Gartlir along with everyone pitched in to help clean up. We don't even know who all was in the kitchen, but I think almost everyone leant a hand washing and clearing as well as clearing trash from the hall. Great teamwork and most appreciated.

Thank you all so much for supporting Harvest Holiday,

Linda & JL

Ann von der Heide – Note from Jack:

Ann came home from the hospital Sunday [sic – it was Friday], the 28th. The stomach to intestine opening from her Whipple procedure has closed and been ballooned opened twice, and would in all probability close again. So her doctors decided to bypass the problem by installing an intestinal feeding tube (J-tube), and a stomach vent (G-tube). All this and hospital recovery took three weeks. She's tired and recovering slowly. We're grateful for all your thoughts and prayers.
