

Harvest Holiday News

October 2018

Note from the Chair

---

Greetings, All !

Thanks to all who came out to dance, cue, setup, and cleanup at our two dances in September: the regular Sunday Fun Dance on the 9th, and the Autumn Fun Rounds (Ph II-IV) on the 30th. We had a great turnout for both events.

Remember: October's Sunday Fun Dance is on the THIRD Sunday, on October 21. This one-time change was made to accommodate the local dancers who are attending the Centex Festival on the second weekend of October.

See y'all on the dance floor soon!

Dancer News

JL Pelton had arthroscopic surgery on his left knee on September 7. Back in 2008 he stepped backwards off a trailer in 2008 – thought the trailer was longer – right into a hole and tore the meniscus in his knee. Not that he knew it at the time, but all the dancing over the past years continued to aggravate the knee, and the week of dancing in Eureka Springs in August was the final straw, and he finally got it taken care of. Now almost five weeks into rehab, it is healing well, although he is being cautious, and cautiously dancing. Our best wishes for continued healing.
