

Harvest Holiday News

July 2019

Note from the Chair

Greetings from the Chair.

We hope that everyone is enjoying "the good old summertime" and finding lots of opportunities to dance. Several members will be attending ICBDA in Orlando July 10-13, so the Harvest Holiday Sunday Fun Dance will be held on July 21st.

Kathy is busy getting the word out for the Summer Rounds on Sunday, July 28th, and we hope that members will come and encourage the newer dancers. Light refreshments are appreciated, also. Special thanks to JL & Linda for serving as chair and hosting these quarterly dances. And a big "shout out" to Christine for the wonderful newsletter she does for us!

Happy Dancing,

Ed and Karen

Go On, Get it On

Editor's Note: Special thanks to all who attended/braved the June 9 Fun Dance. The dance started at 2:00 as usual, BUT about 20 seconds into the first dance, there was a power outage – no lights, no a/c, no fans, etc. No dancing? Wrong! Jack Kenny had a powered/amplified speaker that would hook into a computer, and amazingly put out enough sound for the dancers to hear. There was no microphone input, so there was no "live" cueing but, luckily, all the cuers had some pre-cued dances on their computers. So, with the computers and speaker operating on battery, the doors cracked a little to let in some light and create a cross-breeze, the dance continued "as usual." Oh, the tenacity of round dancers!
