

Harvest Holiday News

June 2019

Note from the Chair

Greetings from the Chair.

We had a good trip Fun Valley, no kittens in the belly of the fifth wheel and no breakdowns! It was the coldest it has been in the 8 years that we have held the event, but we had a great group of dancers, and we really enjoyed the week.

A big "thank you" to Barrie, Linda, and Christine who worked on "tweaking" the HH schedule so that we can support other festivals. I'll let Christine present the revisions, and, of course, you can always check the HH website for current information.

We look forward to another great Sunday Fun Dance on June 9th!

Happy Dancing,

Karen and Ed

Dancer News

---

Sharon Hamner – Sharon has recently moved to the beautiful hills of Tennessee to live with her daughter and family. Sharon was a long-time Harvest Holiday member and served our organization in several capacities for many years – most notably as the Hospitality Chair for the Festival for over 10 years – until about three years ago when she had to give up dancing for medical reasons. We have missed seeing her on the dance floor and wish her well in her new location.

Congratulations

Karen & Ed Gloodt – Their Phase IV quickstep, I Won't Dance, has been selected as the 2nd runner up for the Phase IV Roundalab 2019 Third Quarter Round of the Quarter.
